IN THE OTHER STATES.

The Democratic Congressional Majority Still Growing.

Eighteen States Without a Single Republican Representative—Pennsylvania the Only One With a Majority in the Delegation.

The late and almost complete returns from the congressional districts throughout the country add to the overwhelming defeat of the republicans. The democratic majority in the next house will be equal to almost one-half the entire membership and 18 states will be without a single republican representative. Several heretofore strong republican states including Nebraska, New Hampshire and Rhode Island, are left entirely without republican representation, and there are but 3 republicans elected from the south. Pennsylvania is the only state in the Union that voted on Tuesday last that has a majority of republicans in their delegation. In the third Nebraska district the Farmers' Alliance candidate is elected against both a republican and democratic candidate by a plurality of 9,000. This district is composed of 47 counties. The following table, compiled from the latest returns to the Republic, shows 233 democrats, 87 republicans and 6 alliance men elected to the house, with two districts in Michigan and one in Wisconsin still in doubt:

SHOT BY A JUDGE.

Sweet Springs, Mo., Nov. 6.—While en route from Sedalia to his home near this city on the Lexington branch of the Missouri Pacific railroad this afternoon, Colonel Thomas B. Price and Judge John P. Higgins became engaged in a personal difficulty, when Higgins shot Rice, probably fatally, the ball entering the lower part of the abdomen passing through the body and lodging just under the small of the back.

The shooting took place in the smoking car just after the train had passed Georgetown. The wounded man sank rapidly and was unconscious when the train reached Hous-tonia, five miles west of this city. There he was taken off the car and medical aid summoned.

The difficulty grew out of the result of the late democratic primary election in Pettis county when Judge Higgins was defeated for renomination. Col. Price was a son of the late General Tom Price, was a member of congress from the Jefferson City district for a number of years, and was a brother of Congressman Price of Louisiana. He is well known all over the state. Mrs. Price was absent in Jefferson City attending the Colonel's sick mother. She was summoned by telegraph, but cannot arrive before morning. Judge Higgins is at present one of the judges of the county court of Pettis county. Both men live near Hous-tonia twelve miles from this city.

Judge Higgins had sat upon the bench in court all day and Price had been summoned here to serve as a juror but was excused from duty. Both were on their way home and upon boarding the train at the depot Price took a seat just behind that occupied by Judge Higgins and a mutual friend. The latter Price engaged in conversation when Higgins turned partially around in his seat and said to Price, referring to a bridge that Price had been working for in his neighborhood: "Well, I have granted the right for that bridge to day and I hope that the people will stop lying about me."

Price said that no one had lied about him and endeavored to turn the conversation. Higgins made a more personal remark and Price said he did not want to be called a liar; that he had not lied about anyone. He arose and started to leave when Higgins called him a liar. Price reached over and slapped Higgins in the face, when the latter fired through the pocket of his overcoat without raising the weapon.

Late to-night Colonel Price was taken to Sedalia and Dr. Mudd an eminent physician of St. Louis, telegraphed for and will arrive in the morning. The doctors say that Colonel Price has but one chance in a hundred for recovery. Sedalia, Nov. 8.—At 11:20 o'clock last night, Colonel Thomas B. Price who was shot on a Missouri Pacific train Thursday afternoon by Judge J. P. Higgins, of the Pettis county court died. Col. Price made his will yesterday and also an ante-mortem statement to the county attorney. In the latter the colonel says he slapped Higgins in the face for calling him a liar and immediately afterwards was shot by Higgins, who fired the weapon from the pocket of his overcoat.
